The WHS Citizenship Award was presented to senior Triston Evans by WHS math teacher Katherine Addison.

The WHS Student of the Year Award is voted on by the students and is given to the student who is well liked by his peers and is very respectful to his teachers and coaches. As a senior Melton attended ecs. US next year and would like to pursue a degree in nursing. Outside of WHS, Melton attends Cedar Shoals Baptist Church.

Ramey, the May Student of the Month, grabbed this honor for a second month. He showed a good balance between academics, sports and faith. Ramey splits his time between KD Anderson and his former and advanced smithing program. In honor of being named the Student of the Year, he was honored at the local Rotary Dinner, sponsored by the WHS Student Council. Ramey’s faith is displayed in a number of ways but as for organization Ramey has been the most dedicated member of the students’ advisory council in the past two years. He has great spirit and is a true Wolverine, said this WSH science teacher and student. Ramey is well liked by his peers and is very respectful to his teachers and coaches. As a senior Melton attended ecs. US next year and would like to pursue a degree in nursing. Outside of WHS, Melton attends Cedar Shoals Baptist Church.

The CLASS Award which is given in the memory of former WHS student Tobi Ray to a person who possesses character, leadership, a good attitude, serves others, and is special was presented to senior Holly Stockhaus by the Ray family and is pictured above with WHS Principal Aaron Fulmer.

Ramey and Charlie Ramey. “He is well liked by his peers and is very respectful to his teachers and coaches. As a senior Melton attended ecs. US next year and would like to pursue a degree in nursing. Outside of WHS, Melton attends Cedar Shoals Baptist Church.

The Whittier Scholarship is presented to student of the Month. It is given in honor of the finest young men I have ever had the joy of teaching,” said WHS English teacher Danby Bullard. “He has a contagious smile, his pleasant mannerisms, his incredible spirit of humor, his willingness to work hard, and his impressive work ethic make Charlie a memorable student.”

When asked about his future plans the junior said he is currently looking for a scholarship to attend some of the nation’s top universities. Moving on to sports, Ramey is a member of the WSH cross country team for three years and was previously a member of the WHS track team.

WHS senior Layne Melton left was named the April Student of the Month while junior Charlie Ramey right was selected for the month of May.
McCallion and Lyda Take Top Art Honors in State

Woodruff High School senior Elizabeth McCallion was chosen as the prestigious 2015-2016 South Carolina State Department of Education Archibald Rutledge Visual Arts winner. Another WHS senior, Alexis Lyda was selected as the first alternate. The Archibald Rutledge award involves an extensive application process that includes a notebook documenting the thought processes, research, development and evolution of a single work of art and the submission of the art work itself.

McCallion's winning mixed-media artwork was titled United Nature while Lyda's charcoal portrait was titled Mathematical Motherhood. For capturing this top award McCallion receives a scholarship in the amount of $3,492 that she will be using to attend Winthrop University. Had McCallion not chosen to attend a college or university in South Carolina, then the first alternate, Lyda, would have been awarded the scholarship.

There are 34 students across the state of South Carolina that are graduating from public high schools with perfect attendance for all 12 years of school. Of these 34, Woodruff High School has one student achieving 12-year perfect attendance and a few high schools in the state (most much larger than WHS) have two students being recognized. Woodruff High School is honored to have 5 of the 34 or over 14% of the students in the state that have accomplished this feat. This is a tribute to the dedication and commitment of these students and their families in obtaining this goal.

Owen Cox, Grant Opstun, Haralambos Papadonikos, Hunter Barnett, and Monica Harmon will be recognized at the May 27 graduation ceremony for these remarkable accomplishments. Congratulations to these outstanding students!
